Munday, October 25 1703.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 25.

Rome, September 29.

THE Pope holds frequent Conferences touching the present juncture of Affairs. On the 24th his Holiness gave a long Audience to Cardinal Fourbin, on the Advice brought hither that the English and Dutch Fleet is coming upon the Coast of Italy, and which, 'tis suspected, will go to Trieste in Istria to take in Land Forces and Transport them to the Kingdom of Naples, there to make a Descent in favour of the House of Austria. Two days ago he gave an Audience to the Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain, which, 'tis said, was upon the News brought by several Expresses that the Arch-Duke Charles of Austria has been declar'd King of Spain at Vienna. The Count de Lamberg, his Imperial Majesty's Ambassador, has signified publicly, that on the 1st of next Month he intends to celebrate a Solemn Mass in the German Church del Anima, and to expose in that Church the Picture of Charles III. King of Spain. The Cardinal de Fourbin and the Duke d'Uzeda, have made great Complaints concerning it to the Pope, and desir'd him to forbid the putting up of the said Picture; but he has excus'd himself, by telling them that he will give no occasion to any Person to accuse him of Partiality to either side. To day, being the Feast of St Michael, his Holiness gave his Benediction from a Window of the Vatican to the Garrison of the Castle of St. Angelo, which was drawn up in Battalia in the Court of that Palace.

From the Harlem Gazette, dated October 27.

Buda, Oct. 9. A Party of the Rebels of 200 Men that came t'other day upon the Island of St. Andrew with design to take Post there, was driven out of it by a Detachment of Imperialists, who cut off most of them. To day 500 Men of the Regiment of Hanover arriv'd here. Yesterday came hither 100 Rascians of the Island of Raskeve, who lately repuls'd a Party of Rebels that attempted to pass the Danube near that place, and kill'd 20 of them. Tomorrow a strong Party will march out from hence to Harvan which lies within 6 Miles of this Place, to beat up the Quarters of a Body of Rebels there, who have with them several thousand Head of Cattle.

From the Amsterdam Courants, dated Oct. 25 & 27.

Vienna, Oct. 13. The Magistrates of Ausburg were desir'd to furnish'd Prince Lewis of Baden with a certain Quantity of Gunpowder for his Army, in the same Proportion as the City of Nuremberg has done, but they refus'd to comply with this Request. General Geschwind, who was recall'd hither to give an Account of his Conduct in Tyrol when the Elector of Bavaria first invaded it, has not yet been tried for the Mismanagement imputed to him, mean time he insists on his Innocence, and is urgent to have his Conduct enquir'd into. Mr. Stepney the Queen of England's Envoy at this Court, has receiv'd Advice by an Express of the Arrival of the Confederate Fleet at Leg-horne; which is welcome News to us. They write from Hungary that the Rebels have taken Kasinark, that Prince Ragorzi has not above 8000 Men arm'd, that he has order'd the Silver he found at the Mines of Nagibania and other Towns in the Hill Country to be coin'd into Money, that a Body of the Rebels has been defeated by the Hussars at Mellar not far from Pest, and that 7 of them and 200 Horses were carried into Buda. These Letters add, that another Body of 3000 of the Rebels had been fallen upon near Halas by Cellonel Kyba with 6000 Horse, who kill'd part of them and drove others of them into a Morass. There are Advices from Turkey, that the French Emissaries at the Porte do all they can to induce the new Sultan to break with our Emperor. The Prussian Envoy has assur'd the Imperial Court, that the new Alliance between his Master and the King of Sweden, is only for their mutual Defence, and particularly to engage his said Swedish Majesty to acknowledge his Master's Regal Title. The freshest Advices from Hungary inform us, that the Rebels under Prince Ragorzi grow still more formidable daily, and those of them that have been taken Prisoners report, that having got a Train of Artillery he is about to undertake something of Importance. The two Regiments of Schlick and la Tour have pass'd by this City down the Danube on their way to Hungary, they are to go ashore at Presburg, and to march towards Upper Hungary, and are to be follow'd by the Regiment of Visconti which is actually marching hither from Austria. A Chiaus is arriv'd on the Frontiers of Turkey, who has sent for a Pass, that he may come hither on a Message from the Porte, which we are willing to believe is only to notify to this Court the Exaltation of the new Sultan Achmet to the Throne.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 25.

Passau, October 12. On the 1st instant in the Evening General Gronsfeld arriv'd here, to take upon him the Command of the Body of Imperial Forces in and about this Place, in the room of Count Raventlau, who, 'tis said, is to go to Italy to command the Danish Troops that are there in the Emperor's Service. We have Intelligence from Neuburg, that the Bavarian Horse is march'd from the Wood lying in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and is posted near Scharding, whence 'tis suppos'd they intend to move towards the Frontiers of Tyrol, in order to prevent any Incurfion of the Imperialists out of that Country into Bavaria.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated Oct. 15.

The Infantry of the Marshal de Tallard has suffer'd extremely in their March down into the Palatinate, the continual Rains for 8 days together having made the Roads very deep. The Army the Marshal brought from Brisac has been reforc'd by Troops from Mers, Toul and Verdun, and will be further augmented by 6000 Men of the Detachment under Monsieur de Pracontal. This gives us hope the Siege of Landau will be carried on vigorously, and that the Place will be reduc'd in 10 or 12 days after the Trenches are open'd; being besides assur'd that the Breaches made in the last Siege are not perfectly repair'd. The Trenches before it were to be open'd on the 12th or 13th

13th of this Month. 'Tis said the Marshal de Vauban has sent word to the King, that if his Majesty is minded to push on his Conquests on that side, he will undertake to render him Master of Philipsburg soon after Landau.
